

Student Affidavit

Abbreviated Adult Driver Training: Per Ohio Administration Code: 4501-8-11 (E) Abbreviated Adult Driver Training Course Training Agreements Driver training enterprises shall use reasonable controls to verify the student's identification when enrolling in the program. For an abbreviated adult driving course, that offers classroom and behind-the-wheel instruction, using a web-based enrollment process, secure and reasonable controls to authenticate the student's identity are used. An online enterprise shall develop and maintain the means to reasonably authenticate the student's identity. This may be accomplished by a combination of the following: (1) Third-party database authentication; (2) Other secure means that are based on emerging technologies and allow for reasonable assurance that the student's identity is authenticated; or (3) A signed and notarized affidavit. The affidavit includes certification that the parent or guardian submitted official documents to verify the student's identity. The affidavit shall be received by the online enterprise before training may begin.

Adult Remedial Driver Training: Per Ohio Administration Code (OAC): 4501-21-11 Enrollment contract. (1) Should third-party data be required, there shall be a clause within the enrollment contract that identifies the type of any third-party data that will be accessed prior to or during validation of the student's identity, and an adult remedial driving course enterprise shall obtain the student's prior approval before accessing the third-party data, if applicable.
